Visitor's top tips

Bring your binoculars, there's some fascinating wildlife to spot including kingfishers, seals and wild salmon.

Walk or cycle along the river to visit Stockton, there are good cycle lanes around the town.

Even if taking part isn't your thing, watching the white water canoeing is a fascinating way to spend the afternoon.

Seaton Carew beach is about 6 miles away, 2 mile stretch of sandy beach.

Visit Saltburn for a ride on the funicular.

Although the better known seaside locations of Saltburn-by-the-Sea and Staithes are a short drive away, Blackhall Rocks and Crimdon Beach just north of Hartlepool are also worth a visit for a nice stroll along the beach.

We like walking and Portrack Marsh is brilliant for birds and wildlife.

There's a great shopping centre only a short walk away.

The little villages on the coast are very attractive.
