

Welcome to Godrevy Park Caravan Club Site

Get to know Godrevy Park

This spacious site is divided into areas by banking and hedgerows. A rear gate gives access to gorse-covered sand dunes, through which a ten-minute walk leads to a cliff path down to the beach facing St Ives Bay. For the less mobile, a beach-side car park is only a one mile drive away.

The area is peppered with typical little Cornish fishing villages such as Coverack, Cadgwith, Mullion, Porthleven and Mousehole.

This area enjoys the best of both worlds: it is delightfully attractive and recommended for quiet exploration, whilst there are plenty of attractions for family days out. During the school summer break, the Site hums with exuberant children.

Members are warned that bathing off the coast can be dangerous; particular note should be taken of any local warning notices.
