

Welcome to Marazion Caravan Club Site

Get to know Marazion

This is a most attractive site with a lovely parkland feel to it and is ideally placed to explore west Cornwall.

It's only a couple of miles from Marazion, Cornwall's oldest chartered town, which boasts the safest bathing beach for children in the county, some of the best windsurfing in Britain, great sailing with easy launching, and the warmest mean climate in the country - what more could you want for a holiday?

For walkers, the Cornwall Coastal Path beckons. Marazion, with its charming small cottages looks across to St Michael's Mount, perhaps the most famous view in Cornwall. You can cross by the causeway, or take a boat if the tide is high.

Things to see and do from this Club Site

Local attractions

• Paradise Bird Park

Award-winning sanctuary specialising in rare birds - especially parrots - with otters, red squirrels, red pandas, pets' corner and farmyard. Brilliant 'JungleBarn' indoor play centre makes a visit perfect for families, even in poor weather.
